* Photoshop Elements: This program is available for free in most countries and is designed for low-end image editing and creation. It is also a good budget-priced alternative to Photoshop if you don't mind the lack of certain features such as layers. * Adobe Photoshop CC: If you've got serious money to throw around, this is where you're going to go for the absolute best in professional photo editing. It's not cheap, but it's worth it if you want to get the most out of your photos — this is serious photographic work. * Adobe Lightroom: This program is designed for photographers who want to organize their photos, edit them, convert them into different file formats, organize their images as they edit them, and then to share them on the Internet and on a CD/DVD for posting or printing. It's a very robust photo-editing program that can be downloaded for free and is designed for low-end image editing and creation.

Not only does North Carolina have some of the best weather, but the tourism industry has also created a strong demand for lodging. Some of the more popular tourist attractions include: Beaufort: Beaufort is the largest city in the North Carolina Coastal Islands and North Carolina's "history capital", drawing visitors from around the world. Southold and Shelter Islands: Long Island is the seat of government in Suffolk County and a 5-minute ferry ride from Shelter Island, while Southold is the largest and most populous community on the North Fork of Long Island, a historic seaport. Hatteras Island and Currituck Beach: Currituck Beach is one of the most popular beach areas on the East Coast, but it is also one of the least accessible. But don't let that stop you from enjoying a day on the beach. Check out "The Outer Banks" and "Gold Beach NC" Ft. Macon State Park, Atlantic Ocean Beach, Hatteras Island, Currituck Beach, and Dare County: These five places make up the northeast corner of the North Carolina coast and are popular with beach goers. Special Events: North Carolina has many events throughout the year that attract large crowds: Hog Days: Raleigh's North Carolina State Fair takes place annually on the first full weekend of July. It includes a rodeo, pig races, rides, food, a parade, and live entertainment. Klinefelter's syndrome (KS) is the most frequent sex chromosomal aneuploidy. Its X-chromosomal character is well documented. However, its Y-chromosomal counterpart is much less well characterized. We present a male patient and his unaffected brother, with both parents of normal phenotypes and normal karyotypes, who both exhibit Klinefelter syndrome and small deletions on the Y chromosome. A Southern blot analysis of the Y chromosome showed deletions of 200 to 500 kb in the patient, and a deletion of 1500 kb in his unaffected brother. The deletions in the patient were interspersed throughout the Y chromosome, from the
