Tras la doble votación en el Pleno, se jura su investidura Publicidad La Cámara Baja de los Diputados ha aprobado este miércoles por 115 votos a favor y 24 en contra la investidura del presidente-electo del PP, Mariano Rajoy, quien será investido presidente del Gobierno del Estado, tras la doble votación en la que su candidata a la Moncloa, Rivera, ha cedido e incluso retirado su apoyo a su candidato. La investidura ha sido pronunciada el presidente del Senado, Jesús Posada, quien ha hecho una declaración de la votación habida en el Pleno: “Se ha aprobado la mayoría absoluta de los grupos parlamentarios y el segundo escaño de la Cámara Baja. En virtud de la cédula se concede la iniciativa a la señora del Partido Popular, diputada en el Congreso de los Diputados, María Jesús Ezquerro Rivera, la candidata a presidir la Junta de Andalucía, de acuerdo a los resultados obtenidos por
