Establishing Business in Qatar

The Government of Qatar has prepared some guidelines for company registration in Qatar.

The first step in this process is name reservation; applicants should register a name for their intended company and ensure that it complies with all applicable laws. The Ministry of Economy and Commerce is where the name reservation must be made.

A Memorandum of Association or Articles of Association must be written after the name has been reserved. Company formation in Qatar requires the use of this document, which is essential to the process. This document outlines the company's goal and other important information about the business. Without the assistance of an experienced legal expert, it is nearly difficult to draft the articles of association. We have access to the top experts in this field who can write these documents.

Make sure to properly write the Articles of Association, to attest it with the Ministry of Justice, who will then provide a copy of the document to each subscriber when it has been approved.

The company can apply for a tax card and a trading license once the Articles of Association are verified. It should be noted that the company must list a commercial office address next to its name when applying for a trade license. We can also find you an office space if needed because we provide you with end-to-end services.
