The Twilight movie series, based on the novels by Stephenie Meyer, is a beloved franchise among fans of the supernatural and romance genres. With its mix of vampires, werewolves, and teenage drama, the series has captured the hearts of millions of viewers worldwide. Here's a breakdown of the twilight movies in order on netflix.

Twilight (2008)

The first movie in the series introduces us to Bella Swan (Kristen Stewart), a teenage girl who moves to Forks, Washington, to live with her father. There, she meets the enigmatic Edward Cullen (Robert Pattinson), who turns out to be a vampire. Despite the danger, Bella falls in love with Edward, and the two must navigate their forbidden romance while dealing with threats from other vampires and the werewolf group.

Twilight sets the stage for the rest of the series, establishing the world and its rules while introducing us to the central characters. The chemistry between Stewart and Pattinson is palpable, and the film's moody, atmospheric tone is the perfect backdrop for the story. You should watch this first to keep twilight movies in order on netflix.

The Twilight Saga: New Moon (2009)

In the second installment of the series The Twilight Saga: New Moon, Bella is heartbroken after Edward leaves her in an effort to protect her from his vampire world. As she tries to move on, she becomes close to her friend Jacob Black (Taylor Lautner), who turns out to be a werewolf. But when Bella discovers that Edward plans to expose himself to the world, she rushes to Italy to stop him, putting herself in danger once again. New Moon delves deeper into the supernatural world of the series, exploring the mythology of the werewolves and vampires while continuing Bella's emotional journey.
